

Chava Boyarin
2128 Jefferson Avenue
Berkeley, Ca. 94703
510-540-6569

Curriculum Vitae

1/25/16

1946, born Czechoslovakia
1949, immigrated Israel
1998, immigrated USA
Married + 2 (grown) children

Work

Present job:

Spring 1999-present, Lecturer in Hebrew, UC Berkeley

Fall 1998-Spring, 2000, Instructor of Modern and Biblical Hebrew, San Francisco State University

1998-1999, Translator of nonfiction book for Am Oved Publishers

Fall 1978 - July 1998, teacher of Latin and Greek and ancient history/Western Civilization, Ben-Gurion University, Beersheba, Israel

1965-66, Teaching Hebrew and Literacy to Immigrants to Israel

1969-1972, Teaching Hebrew School and Jewish History, Lakewood and Metuchen, New Jersey

Fall 1972-Spring 1973, Research Assistant Prof. Naftaly Lewis, CUNY

Fall 1972-Spring 1974, Adjunct lecturer, Classics, CCNY

Fall 1974-Spring 1975, teacher of Hebrew at Rabbi Riskin's Hebrew High School, Riverdale, New York

Fall 1979-Spring 1988, Assistant in Classics, Bar-Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel

Fall 1984-Spring 1985, teacher of Jewish History at Gan School, New Haven, Ct.

Fall 1991-Spring 1993, teacher of Latin and Greek, Hebrew University

1988-89 Acting Director, Judith Lieberman Institute for Women's Jewish Studies

Education

Fall 1966-Spring 1967, Hebrew University

1972 B.A. Classics, C.C.N.Y.

1977 M.A. Classics, CUNY

Thesis: Roman Taxation in Palestine in the First Three Centuries of the Common Era, Director Prof. Naftaly Lewis

June 1983, Diploma in Scientific Translation and Applied Linguistics, Hebrew University

1982: Accepted for candidacy Phd. in Classics, Bar-Ilan University:

Thesis topic: The Division of Judicial Jurisdiction in Egypt from Augustus to Diocletian According to the Papyri (withdrew 1988)

Prizes

May 1970, Prize for Excellence in Latin, C.C.N.Y.

January 1972, Claflin Prize for Proficiency in Latin